DOUBLE D: AN EXPERIENCE LIKE NO OTHER

Cruise through the Bahamas with vast expanses of crystalline waters and endless clusters of idyllic paradise islands for an unforgettable experience.

Be prepared for a charter experience that is bound to stay with you for life.

The background image is a wide-angle aerial shot of a tropical coastal area. In the foreground, there's a vibrant turquoise sea with various shades of green and blue. A small, sparsely built peninsula or island extends from the left side into the water. On this land, there's a few simple buildings, some palm trees, and a small pier extending into the sea. The sky above is a clear, pale blue with scattered white clouds.

NORTH ATLANTIC OCEAN

THE BAHAMAS

NASSAU

Things to do: Atlantis Resort Waterpark, Atlantis Resort Cove Hotel Adults Cain area, Clay Courts available at One and Only Ocean Club, Golf Course

Available at Atlantis Resort.

Day trip by Yacht to Rose Island, which is one hour boat ride from Prince George Dock, or 3 hours from Albany Marina. Rose Island is perfect for setting up beach picnic and using the jet skis.

Albany Resort offers a Golf Course and Tennis Courts. Both Albany and Atlantis have a variety of upscale Restaurants. There are swim with Dolphin encounters at the Atlantis Resort and Blue Lagoon (just off Rose Island).

NORTH ELEUTHERA

Take a tender ride around Spanish Wells onto what they call the Devil's Backbone, which is a long coral reef just off shore Eleuthera Island. You can also explore Harbour Island Beach, famous for its 5km beach which has Pink Sand and swim in pristine waters. You can also rent a golf cart to have a full tour of the town.

EXUMA CAYS

The Exuma cays are 365 small islands and highly regarded as the most enjoyable part of the Bahamas for Yachts looking for quiet beaches, crystal clear water and quirky visits such as places like Big Majors Spot with the swimming pigs, Allens Cay with the large Iguana's native to the Bahamas, Thunderball Grotto located just around the corner from the Pigs, which was used in a James Bond Film (Thunderball).

The Grotto is a cave underneath a small island, where at low tide you can walk into the cave, or at high tide swim under the entrance into the cave. Inside the cave are 1000's of small fish that enjoy visitors feeding them with bread.

EXUMA CAYS

If you're looking for a safe thrill, check out the nurse sharks that allow people to swim around them while being fed – they are located at the dock at Compass Cay. If possible, spend at least a week in the Exuma's. This is the best place to use your Yacht toy's on a daily basis, beach picnic's, snorkeling and the best star viewing in the world, due to the fact no pollution and no lights.
